

Shaking a Test Tube

Place a stopper into the tube. Shake the tube by either flicking it with a finger or by holding the stopper in with your thumb and then turning it over several times. Check with your teacher for the preferable method for the given activity.